

Raising the Reptilian Race

by

E.C. McCready

Logline

A New World Order is initiated with women in combat that's an interbreeding for hybrid reptilian humanoids that will usurp the power of a Neo-Nazi government that is attempting a world wide domination by this definition of war that makes them the true reptilian power elite.

INT. ADMIRAL COLBY'S INNER OFFICE - DAY

Plush oak, immense. At his desk, ADMIRAL JASON COLBY calmly continues writing. VICE ADMIRAL MADISON DALTON stands.

COLBY

Neural networks and computer programs. Applications. Feminist propaganda. Liberal media and Hollywood.

DALTON

With women in combat? Lets toss grenades instead. Who needs rocks? Or would you rather throw ignorance, some hatred? Stone them to death as career warriors?

COLBY

Killing bitches. Women and warfare. Doesn't appeal to you?

DALTON

Special arrangements with untrained enlisted women. That might. For what though? Weapons training for my mess management?

COLBY

Repealing the law forbidding women in combat evens the score.

DALTON

That's it. Statistical lumps in a war zone. Balanced facts. It's just the occupational hazards of combat.

COLBY

American's fantasy marches on into chaos. The End of history is ourselves. That's the center of our gravity. Defeated by our enemies. That's the real superpower.

DALTON

Sisters, our daughters, my dear mother. Errant weapons? We shouldn't forget the innocent. Now that's artificial intelligence.

COLBY

Incoming realms. Reality intrusions for a New World Order. But, we're the Dictators with absolute power. The divine right of kings.

DALTON

Hybrid networking of bloodlines? Using human affairs in warfare as a genetic anomaly for a cosmic disorder. Interbreeding it into our own rebellions.

COLBY

Against the "Sons of God." Daughters of men from another world. Ours. The serpent race. We create it as the economic rulers with a Neo-Nazi form of government.

DALTON

World conquest. That's an absolutism of nonsense. Global domination? Then what? Social engineering? Subverting is reason enough I suppose. Bring on the raging of nations in an end-time drama. Invade. Right into a worldwide spiritual vacuum as a peacemaking entity.

COLBY

With God-given rights to rule. Higher realm battles for independence. Government-sponsored. Crushing dissent with the perfect potential recruit. It'll become an entire militant movement. Women in combat. Now she's a rebel image. Attractive enough for you?

DALTON

Beauty? Beholding me to form militia groups. You want me to be the Anti-Christ. Provide you with the blood-sacrifices that will usher in the New Age with an invisible worldwide entity? With what? DNA combinations shape-shifting for a reptilian and mammalian cosmic order.

COLBY

Perfect. All of it an antimatter.

DALTON

Lovely. Familial connections statistically insignificant. Alright, they experience the rigorous demands of war in combat. You're right, constituents will disapprove. Yet, They're unsuspected strengths will crop up.

COLBY

Dogged by an allegiance. Now the sexist is up-by-their-bootstraps. Individualism. That's what we need. Women breast-pumping. Baby-sitting us on our beer-drinking levels of familiarity. Violence with an access to equal justice.

DALTON

Lawlessness? Abductions, add the rapes. That isn't protection. No family or community. Nothing particular with the ways that women will suffer. Where's the breakdown?

COLBY

Satanic human sacrifice rituals. Our royal ceremonies. All religion is artificial. We lock off certain genetic codes. They open others. A literal transformation of the cellular structure. Reptilians were here first. We're going to re-colonize. What's underground will be above-ground. Inter-dimensional travel. Terrestrially.

DALTON

Sub-cultures. Isn't that against your overall plan? Are we afraid of ourselves? Scurrying for war. Now, we're going to protect ourselves from us. Where's the original population?

COLBY

In the gigantic battles for our military metaphysics. We become the power elite. Inter-changing with the war we make with women.
